Hasty Legislation.

One of the most conspicuous instances of hasty legislation, where unusual care and deliberation should be had, is the passage of the tax bill in the assembly. This bill is, we suppose from the extreme length of it, and the circumstances under which it was prepared, a revision of the entire system of taxation in the state, and intended to supercede all the laws now in force relating to that important question. Yet it is passed without particular amendments, under the previous question, and so far as we know, without all the sections of the bill being even considered in committee of the whole. If this is not taking a "big thing" on faith, we would like to know what would be.

The character of this action will be better illustrated when the frivolity, idleness, and loss of time in the regular session is remembered. Then three days adjournments, sessions without quorums, and a general round of indifference, extravagance and neglect of duty was the regular order of the day. Now, the most important law ever proposed in the state, is crowded through under the previous question, when, perhaps, half the members have not read the bill, and are as innocent of any knowledge of its details as an outsider who has not had the privilege of seeing it.

We are glad that so experienced and discreet a legislator as Judge Spooner, of Walworth, has met the question in the right spirit and in the right manner. When the bill made its appearance in the senate the morning after its passage in the house, (of course without the usual form of engrossment, for no time had been allowed for that duty,) he opposed a motion to go at once into committee of the whole upon it.

He thought it was proper to go along with the regular course of legislation. There were several bills that should be acted upon before the adjournment, and it was to him clear that if this bill was taken up in preference to all others, it would consume the whole time of the session, and then could not receive the proper action of the legislature. For one, he was for adjourning at the time fixed. It was due to the members and the people that the adjournment should take place at that time. If any bill was to fail for want of time, it should choose that the tax bill should be the one. He was in favor of leaving that bill to take the regular course, and not take it up at the expense of other legislation.

Senator Hudd spoke in favor of the motion, claiming that the bill might be completed by to-morrow night if the senate would work. He had understood that there was to be a factious opposition to this bill, and the indication of the gentleman from the 12th (Spooner) was proof that such was the case.

Senator Spooner buried back the charge of factiousness into the teeth of the tax bill (Hudd) with indignation. He did not believe that proper action could be had on this bill, and he was for leaving it till the next session, when the subject, in all its bearings, could be considered. He desired that when a law should be passed, that it would stand the test of the courts as long as it took the legislature to pass it. The recent decision of the supreme court had rendered action on this subject unnecessary, and he was opposed to passing a law without full and thorough consideration. He desired to finish up such legislation as was necessary, and go home.

The objections of Judge Spooner are well taken, and it will be for the people and the state if sufficient time is taken to perfect so important a system as the bill establishes. Many of its provisions are undoubtedly an improvement on the present mode of assessment and taxation; but there is certainly no necessity, since the late decision of the supreme court, to pass an imperfect law which the next legislature will be called upon to amend, or incur the expense of a protracted summer session to harmonize and properly adjust.

Let the bill go over to the next legislature, and let the present hybrid body, where no one is responsible for anything, earn the gratitude of its constituents by adjourning at the time specified when the present unnecessary special session was ordered. The controlling influences in the assembly, as now constituted, are not such as to particularly command the confidence of the people in ordinary matters of legislation, any thing nothing of important emergencies or the guardianship of special interests.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Peter Cook, of Maquoketa, Iowa, while under the influence of strychnine whisky, on Monday last, stabbed his son, aged 18 or 19 years, in the left side. The wound is severe and it is supposed will prove fatal. The father has fled.

The Fort Madison, Iowa, Plain Dealer says the cholera, or some other disease, is taking off the hogs in that city at a rapid rate. One gentleman has lost between two and three hundred during the last few weeks.

It may be a piece of interesting information to our soldiers to learn the fact that the government has given the army paymasters strict orders to withhold the pay of officers or soldiers who are absent from their regiments on sick leave or furlough.

Legislative.

THURSDAY, JUNE 12.

IN THE SENATE, a bill in relation to pleading in certain cases, was referred to the Senate by the Governor with his objections—and the vote was unanimously sustained.

The bill to provide for the enrolment and organization of the militia of the state of Wisconsin was passed.

The tax bill was received from the Assembly, and considered in committee of the whole.

In the ASSEMBLY, the bill appropriating $15,000 to Carpenter and Hyer, in payment of counsel fees in suits commenced against the state under the printing contract was taken up.

Several amendments were proposed, reducing the amount of the appropriation, one by Mr. Bates to $3,000, but all were rejected. The question on ordering the bill to a third reading was then taken, and defeated by a vote, 53 to 53.

All the members from Rock county, except Mr. Bannister, voted against the bill. Mr. Webb moved a reconsideration, and the bill is left in a position to try another vote on its passage.

A resolution extending the session of the legislature to Friday, the 20th inst., was adopted—ayes 53, noes 33.

On this resolution, Mr. Guernsey of this county voted aye, and Messrs. Bates, Howard, Miller and Palmer voted no. Mr. Bannister was absent.

CRIM. COV.—A Mrs. Rider, familiarly called by the police "Mother Rider," was arrested yesterday morning on suspicion of having produced an abortion upon the person of a young woman who is now in a very critical condition at the house of the defendant. Mrs. Rider keeps a so-called sulphur-bath establishment on Harrison street, near Clark, but it is to very bad repute with the authorities. She stated that the young woman resided at above, and it is dismally connected in Davenport, Iowa, where she was seduced, and from whence, to hide her shame, she came to this city, a few weeks ago. She was first taken to a house of bad reputation State street, and on Friday evening last was taken to Mrs. Rider's cure. Mrs. Rider alleges that whatever improper treatment has been received by the young woman had been administered previous to her arrival at her house, and that she was very ill when she arrived there, so much so that she sent for a physician early on Saturday morning. A partial examination of the case was had before Justice Milliken, yesterday afternoon, and it is dismissed for the present. Should the unfortunate young girl, who is said to be but seventeen years old, die, which is not at all improbable, further action will doubtless be taken in the matter.—Chicago Journal.

The frequency with which such cases are occurring is cause for well founded alarm, and every effort to detect and punish all parties engaged in them should receive the approbation of every friend of virtue and the human race. It may be a delicate question for the public press to discuss, but a fearful danger and great necessity requires that faithful admonition be given. Undoubtedly, a particular class of advertising in most of the papers in the country has increased the evil and crime which precede such tragic terminations as the revelations above and those we published yesterday as made in Buffalo, by circulating a delusive belief that the laws of nature can be transgressed with impunity and excited passions gratified without danger. Surely parents have a duty to their children, and our courts to criminals, which ought not to be neglected and cannot be without the most lamentable consequences.

Deaths in the Army.

At a meeting of the commissioned officers of the 8th regiment Wisconsin volunteers, held at the regimental headquarters, in camp, at Farmington, Miss., on the 26th day of May, A. D. 1862, Col. R. C. Murphy in the chair, and Lieut. M. B. Patchin appointed secretary, the following resolutions were presented, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, By the fortunes of war, this regiment has recently lost two of its most valuable officers—Capt. John E. Perkins of company C, and Lieut. Richard D. Beaumais of company G, the first on the 11th, and the second on the 9th inst., of wounds received in the engagement at Farmington on the 9th of this month; we, who have for nearly nine months been intimately associated with them in the perils and privations of military life, knowing their worth, and feeling as we do their loss, deem it our duty to place upon record a testimonial of our regard for the memory of our deceased associates. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Capt. Perkins and Lieut. Beaumais, we have lost two general and gallant companions in arms; our regiment two faithful and efficient officers; our country two tried and devoted sons.

Resolved, That while we lament their loss, we are comforted by the reflection that they fell at the post of duty and honor, making the last and greatest sacrifice their country can make for its country, by offering their lives for her welfare on the crimson altar of battle.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our most sincere sympathy and condolence to the relatives and friends of the deceased, trusting that they may find in the consideration of the justice and sublimity of the cause in which their kindred have fallen, some alleviation of the sorrow which is unavoidable at so great a loss.

Resolved, That we have heard with deep regret the fearful tidings of the death of Lysander Cook, recently soldier of this regiment. In his death we have lost a friend, whose kind, obliging and generous disposition has endeavored him to us all, and we deeply sympathize with his relations and friends in this hour of affliction.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the friends of the deceased and to the newspapers of Eau Claire and Janesville, and to the Milwaukee Sentinel, and the Wisconsin State Journal, for publication, with the request that other Wisconsin papers copy.

Murderer Arrested.

Croak, who murdered the lad at Cottage Grove, was arrested near Stoughton, lying in the bushes, by deputy sheriff Smith. When arrested the people who saw him and knew what he had done, were greatly exasperated against him, so much so that he feared violence. The murdered boy was an adopted son of Mr. Cass.

Be as careful not to provoke an enemy as you would to steer safely near a dangerous reef.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, June 12. The Tribune says that the overwhelming superiority of the army of the Union over the rebels is fully proved by a partial list of the wounded in the Richmond Enquirer. This list, the second published, has names of wounded from 64 regiments and 10 independent corps. Doubtless the rebels had nearly a hundred regiments in the two days' battle. It is stated, with every probability of truth, that the now well known North Carolina Union feeling had broken out on Tuesday in open revolt in six North Carolina regiments, being an entire brigade from that state, and that the brigade was surrounded with Mississippi and Alabama troops in superior numbers, disarmed and placed in confinement.

From the Richmond Examiner of May 28th, it appears that Gen. Magruder has been assigned to take command in the Mississippi district, but will not proceed to his post for some days, in view of the impending crisis in the neighborhood of Richmond.

St. Louis, June 12. The Democrat has a letter from Springfield, Mo., dated June 8th, which says: "Depredations of the most heinous character continue to be committed on the southern and western border. In many instances peaceable citizens have been shot while pursuing their daily avocations."

Col. Richardson who is ever ready to meet these desperadoes, left this place a short time since on an expedition west. He commanded only two or three companies of the state militia, and it appears that he was surprised by a far superior force in the vicinity of Neosho, and after a short contest was compelled to leave his position.

"He had his horse shot at the beginning of the engagement, and in falling his left shoulder was dislocated, besides being wounded by a ball from the enemy in the right arm."

"Notwithstanding the superior force of the rebels, the little band of patriots fought valiantly until their commander was wounded, when they deemed it prudent to withdraw."

WASHINGTON, June 12. A dispatch from Gen. Negley to Gov. Johnson announces the success of his expedition to East Tennessee. He took 80 prisoners, including a number of prominent officers, a drove of cattle and a large number of horses, intended for the rebel army. The defeat of Gen. Adams' rebel force in Sweden's Cove was more complete than at first supposed. Adams escaped without hat, sword or horse.

The rebel batteries at Chattanooga were silenced on the 27th, after a heavy cannonading of three hours. Our forces opened fire the next day, and continued it for six hours, upon the tower and rifle pits, driving the enemy out of his works, and forcing him to evacuate the city. They burnt all the railroad bridges to prevent pursuit.

The Tennesseans came out in crowds along the march and cheered our troops enthusiastically. A great many applications are made at the executive office for passes to Memphis.

NEW YORK, June 12. In late rebel papers we find the following reports:

The Vicksburg papers state that Desoto, Miss., was destroyed by the federal fleet. On Monday the gunboat shelled Grand Gulf, and the rebels' land troops, who pillaged and sacked the town.

CAIRO, June 12. A naval officer who arrived on the W. H. B. last evening, says that Vicksburg is deserted and burned. I give the report for what it is worth.

The flotilla now lying before Memphis, on Monday evening received sailing orders for their departure on Wednesday for Vicksburg. If the report which I have telegraphed you, of the burning and evacuation of Vicksburg be true, they will not be far from a week. The gunboats Lexington and Cairo will remain at the levee before Memphis for the present. The federal rank Queen of the West arrived at Cairo last evening and will go to Memphis City for immediate repairs. It is said that the enemy have mounted a battery at the mouth of Duck Creek about forty miles above Fort Henry, but the rumor is disbelieved in military circles here.

There are in the hospitals at Hamburg 1,500, at Monterey 1,000, between Monterey and Pittsburg in division hospital, in tents, 800, in all 3,300 sick, about one-third of whom are from our army.

The steamer Belle Greole arrived at Paducah last evening from Pittsburg Landing. At that port her passengers were transferred to another steamer and brought to Cairo. From one of these I learn interesting particulars of the whereabouts of the different divisions of our army. Gen. Pope was menacing a large body of confederate troops estimated at 30,000 strong. Gen. Pope proposes to give them an opportunity to fight, surrender or run.

WASHINGTON, June 12. A dispatch from Fremont, received at the war department, dated Port Republic, via Marienburg, to-day, says: "There was no collision with the enemy after dark last night. We renewed our march this A. M., entering the woods on the right of battle, and the enemy were driven back. The enemy was found in full retreat on Port Republic. Our advance found his rear guard barely across the river and the bridge burning."

A cannonading during the forenoon apprised us of an engagement, which I afterwards learned was Jackson's attack on Shields, who, after a severe engagement, drove him down the river, and is now in hot pursuit.

I have sent cavalry to communicate with Shields. Our loss at the battle of Cross Keys will amount to 125 killed and about 500 wounded. The enemy's loss was unestimated, he carrying off his dead and wounded.

During the night we counted on our march 200 rebel dead in one field. Stahl's brigade was in the hottest part of the fight, being the left wing, and lost in officers five killed and seventeen wounded. One of the Bucktail Rifle companies lost all its officers.

One of my staff, Captain Dunne, was killed. The officers and men behaved gallantly and efficiently. J. C. FREMONT.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, June 12. No further particulars of Gen. Shields' engagement have been received at the war department. Advices from McClellan's headquarters, this evening, state that a reconnaissance made this morning as far as Meadow Bridge found the enemy quiet, but in force. Some skirmishing had taken place that day, but with little result on either side. The weather is good and roads improving.

WASHINGTON, June 12. The circuit court, day in the matter of John and Wm. Jackson, claimed as fugitives by Dennis Duval, of Maryland, reiterated its former decision in refusing to admit testimony as to the loyalty of the claimant; but permitted the admission of testimony as to whether the slaves had been actually engaged in aiding the rebellion. The fugitives were returned to the claimant. The counsel for the slaves claimed that the court should return fugitive only at the requisition of the governor of Maryland, but the court decided against the point.

Adjutant General Thomas was transacting business as usual to-day at the war department. This is sufficient reply to the statement that he had been suspended from office. The Richmond Examiner of the 9th inst. devotes its editorial columns to deploring such a fact that there is found no individual so desperate and weary of living by the wretchedness this invasion has brought on him, as to substitute what may be termed a minor suicide for a glorious martyrdom. This is intended doubtless as an incentive to assassination of the United States officers who have taken possession of rebel territory. The paper is printed on a half sheet, and is a striking evidence of the impoverished condition of affairs in Richmond.

WASHINGTON, June 12. Tribune Dispatch.—Representative Maynard of Tenn. received a telegram from Gen. Johnson to the effect that the rebels were reported retreating from Cumberland Gap towards Chattanooga. If so East Tennessee is at last freed, and General Mitchell can immediately take possession.

A conference appointed on the part of the House on the tax bill are Thaddeus Stevens Morrill of Vermont, and Holman of Indiana. On the part of the Senate, Fessenden, Harris and Henderson.

Times dispatch.—A gentleman from Fredericksburg direct states that when the bridge across the Rappahannock was swept away by the flood the other day, the secessionists of both sexes assembled on the bank and manifested their delight by cheering and waving of hats and handkerchiefs. Yet no one was arrested. The few Union citizens of the place complain, bitterly that the protection given to rebel property is denied them, and that avowed rebels are treated with so much tenderness as to make the lot of the poor Unionists peculiarly hard. When Gen. Doubleday went out he took for his headquarters the house of a notorious rebel who had three sons in the rebel army; but Gen. McDowell instantly ordered Gen. Doubleday out, and placed a guard to protect the house.

The following dispatch has just been transmitted to Secretary Stanton, also a copy to Gen. Casey. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, June 10th—11 P. M. To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War: My despatch of the 1st inst. stating that Gen. Casey's division, which was in the line, gave way unaccountably and discreditably, was based upon official statements made to me before I arrived upon the field of battle. From statements made to me subsequently by Gens. Casey and Negley, I am induced to believe that portions of that division behaved well, and made a most gallant stand against superior numbers; but at present the accounts are too conflicting to enable me to discriminate with certainty. When the facts are clearly ascertained the unexceptionable good conduct will be properly acknowledged.

Signed, GEO. B. MCLELLAN, Maj. Gen. Com'd'g. AFTERNOON DESPATCHES. WASHINGTON, June 12. General Burnside was yesterday tendered a serenade by his friends. He replied that he was exceedingly obliged to them for their kindness, but declined the compliment.

Lord Lyons had an audience with the President to-day, being on the eve of his departure for Europe. He will be absent several weeks. The President offers by proclamation nearly 400,000 acres of land at public sale in Oregon, in October.

MEMPHIS, June 12.—via Cairo. Special to the Tribune.—The reports that the rebels have burned Vicksburg are not credited. Several gunboats and rams are starting on a reconnaissance up White river. Many families are starting north, who have been waiting months for Union forces.

NEW YORK, June 12. Flour receipts 23,595 bushels. Market shade easier—sugar 9.00 bids—4,204.30 bids—5,804.00 extra—4,204.30 super western—4,504.64 common to medium extra western.

Wheat receipts 137,503 bushels—market 1c slower—sales 60,000 bushels—90a1.20 Chicago spring—98a1.04 Milwaukee club.

NEW YORK, 13. Stocks active and higher. Missouri sixes 53.33—Tennessee sixes 60.

BILL PASSED.—The Senate yesterday passed the farm mortgage bill so called—providing for the commencement of actions in circuit courts for removing clouds from titles.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.—The state, by the last Congressional apportionment, is entitled to six members in the next Congress, which it will be called upon to elect at the next election. The districts are as follows:

First—Milwaukee, Waukesha, Walworth, Racine and Kenosha. Second—Rock, Jefferson, Dane and Columbia. Third—Green, LaFayette, Iowa, Grant, Crawford, Lincoln and Sauk.

Fourth—Ozaukee, Washington, Dodge, Fond du Lac and Sheboygan. Fifth—Manitowish, Calumet, Winnebago, Green, Lake, Marquette, Waushara, Waupaca, Outagamie, Brown, Kewaunee, Door, Oconto and Shawano.

Sixth—LaCrosse, Bad Axe, Monroe, Janesville, Adams, Portage, Wood, Jackson, Trempealeau, Buffalo, Pepin, Pierce, St. Croix, Dunn, Eau Claire, Clark, Marathon, Chippewa, Dallas, Polk, Burnett, Douglas, La Pointe and Ashland.

The present representatives reside respectively in the First, Fourth and Sixth Districts.

A NEW STYLE OF "QUAKERS."—Not only did the rebels repeat the "Quaker gun" experiment at Corinth, but they even stuffed uniforms with straw, and left these imitations soldier on picket, to delay the advance of our forces.

THE FREE OF THE ANTI-SLACK.—We are informed that this extensive range of mountains are covered with fire, which is rapidly extending through that section of northern New York. Clinton prison has been in imminent danger, the near approach of the flames beating the walls.

Col. Cross, the celebrated forger, secured his release from the Philadelphia penitentiary, by forging a collection of official signatures at Washington. The fraud was detected in time, however, to reconsign him to his cell.

A regularly organized band of horse thieves, one hundred and fifty strong, it is said, have their headquarters in Washington county, Indiana.

Slander not others because they slander you.

No Quarter for Butler.

This appears to be the sworn intention of the confederates. But "to cook a hare you must first catch him." A writer in the Jackson Mississippiian thinks old Ben's head is worth $10,000.

$10,000 REWARD FOR THE HEAD OF BUTLER. To the Editor of the Mississippiian.—As the modern Nero, the brutal, beastly and sanguinary savage, General B. F. Butler, has, by virtue of his general order No. 28, dated at New Orleans on the 15th of May, violated the principles of warfare, and as he proposes to outrage the chastity of the women of the south who, by the misfortunes of war, fall into his hands, it is our plain duty to rid our country and the world of the horrid, hideous monster by any means that can be commanded.

When a man turns to be an enemy of the human race he forfeits his right to a habitation upon the face of the world; and he who believes the world of such an unnatural creature is entitled to a monument in the memory of mankind.

Let there be a purse of $10,000 made out and offered for the head of this man Butler, or to any one who will take his life by any means whatsoever. If the person who kills him should lose his own life by doing so, let the money go to his heirs, or to whoever he may designate. I would suggest that this money be made up in sums not less than $100.

The Mississippiian editorially has the following: ASSASSINATION OF THE INFAMOUS BUTLER.—For a day or two past we have "heard upon the breeze" a report that the monster who has so outraged the moral sentiment of mankind by his proclamations and orders had been sent "where the wicked cease from troubling." We fear the report has no foundation in fact. Perhaps the wish was father to the thought.

It would be retributive justice, not revenge, which would consign him to the gulph of black despair—deep—as his will for others would create. The most pious heart might, without irreverence, ejaculate the prayer, "O Cancel his bond of life, great God, I pray, that I may live to say thy dog is dead."

What a happy day it will be for the south when, like Miriam, we can celebrate the deliverance of our country from the cruel oppression of a race, of whose moral sentiments and feelings the blue-eyed slanderer of female chastity and purity is a fit type and representation. When that arrives the only drop of bitterness which will weigh in our cap of joy will be the reflection that we speak a common language and sprang from a common lineage.

And the Charleston Mercury has this paragraph: NO QUARTER FOR PRAYUNE BUTLER!—Let this be the sworn resolve of every southern man. The debased wretch and inhuman tyrant who has published his proclamation consigning to the horrid embraces of a bestial soldiery the mothers and daughters of a southern city which, for the time, is at his mercy, deserves not to be treated according to the laws of honorable warfare. If he is caught, hang him! If he keeps out of harm's reach, and ventures not upon the field of battle, let poison or the knife do his secret or deadly work. He has forfeited his life, in any manner by which it can be taken, to every man, woman, and child in the confederacy. As God is our judge, says the Mississippiian, we believe that the day of retribution is coming for the monster and for the government which sustains him in his crimes.

Lost Boy Found.—The reader may remember that some six or more years ago a small boy, then some ten years old, named Crawford, stepson of Wm. Davis of this city, disappeared. It was ascertained that he arrived at Detroit in company with an older boy from Friendship, son of J. Bulger. Nothing further was heard from either of them, although diligent inquiry was made through the public press, and by letter. Some months ago, Mr. Swineford was in Ashland county, Ohio, and saw a boy who had been residing with a gentleman some five years, who had but a vague idea of his previous history. Circumstances led him to believe that it was the Crawford. Upon his return to this city he communicated the affair to Mrs. Davis, who went to Ashland county, found her boy and returned with him to this city a short time ago.

He states that his companion told him he was his brother, that his name was William Bulger, and that his parents were dead. He had went by that name ever since. His companion left him over four years ago, and he had not heard of him since that time.—Fond du Lac Press.

THE EPICURIAN ORGANISM.—On organist of Bangor was very peculiar as to the nature of his meals, and having gone to church on Sunday without leaving his usual directions, the anxious wife sent her little boy for instructions. When the boy reached the church, he found they had just commenced the Te Deum, and fearing to wait until it was finished, he crept up to his father, and commenced singing in his ear, in the treble voice (sotto voce), "Mother, get a hind quarter of lamb, What shall I do with it?"

The organist was rather astonished, but promptly replied in a low tone, "What shall I do with it?" "And make a pudding of this meat."

With which message the young genius instantly decamped.

DEFEAT OF THE REBELS IN SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Whig concedes the defeat of the rebels in southwestern Virginia by Gen. Cox. It admits that "to use its own language—"General Heth was badly whipped, losing two hundred men and two pieces of artillery. The fight took place near Petersburg. Our force was about fifteen hundred men, and the most convincing to believe it, we are constrained, from the best information we can get on the subject, to think that our defeat was accomplished by an inferior force of the enemy."

A lady lately arrived (says a Buffalo paper) from the lower regions of Tennessee, relates an amusing story of the way in which she saved her valuables. Her husband left home at the commencement of the rebellion, delegating to her the care of considerable property. Getting tired of rebel associations she started for the north, converting all into gold and silver, at gold refiners, she worked the gold coins into the lappings of a pasteboard lined bonnet, and placed the silver pieces between layers of bread and butter deposited in her basket. Setting out on her journey, she thus managed to elude the hordes of thieves that beset her path.

Goon.—The Toledo Commercial gives the following good report:—"The other day a number of rebel prisoners were being shipped at Sandusky for the traitor's home on Johnson's Island. A little German made himself quite prominent with his noisy remarks about the secession. One of them, a bawny six-footer, turned savagely upon him and said, 'We eat Dutchmen down south.' 'You den you not eat Sigel?' was the instant retort. Seceesh had no reply to give, and passed sadly on."

Hospital Stores Shipped.

The box of sanitary stores prepared by the Ladies' Hospital Relief Society was shipped to St. Louis, last Wednesday, whence it will be forwarded to the most needed point for the use of sick and wounded Wisconsin soldiers.

The reason of changing its destination from Mount City Hospital, for which it was first designed, was that since the evacuation of Corinth—and the Mount City being a government hospital—it would not be so much needed there as at some camp hospital nearer our acting army.

The box contained the following articles: 27 shirts, 80 half-worn cotton shirts, 39 bed sheets, 19 pairs of bed drawers, 20 dressing gowns, 32 pillow cases, 10 pillows, 96 pads for broken limbs, 24 pairs carpet slippers, 1 pair morocco slippers, 18 pairs socks, 1 hand mirror, 5 packages dried fruit, 8 towels, 2 bed quilts, 2 packages pins,—a few books, late magazines, papers, &c,—several hundred yards of bandages.

Enclosed in a little roll of the latter was found these verses, evidently written by an aged hand:

My prayer ascend (as the bandage I roll)
To God for the wounded soldier,
That he prove a comfort to body and soul
Though it come from the hand of a stranger.
Keep quiet, be patient and hope for the best,
And time will tell the glad story, (dressed,
When your wounds are healed and you up and
And marching to conquest and glory.

We rolled the bundle tightly, hoping that the wounded hero who used that bandage might be able to read the lines and feel that sympathizing hearts beat for him.

There were several articles more than required to fill the box, which will be sent in the next—including some wine and jellies. Will not those who can, send in enough of the last named articles so that we may send one box of such delicacies. It is not proper to send such articles with clothing. The next box will be sent to Washington in answer to the appeal of the Wisconsin Sanitary Commission established there, of which the Hon. James R. Doolittle of Racine, Wisconsin, is the President.

The ladies propose to meet one afternoon each week for this purpose. Due notice of the time and place will be given.

MARIA F. CLARK, Sec'y.
A CARD.

There has been an unavoidable delay in acknowledging the receipts of the concert given on Tuesday evening, June 9th, by the pupils of the Wisconsin Blind Institute, for the benefit of the Ladies Hospital Relief Society—the net proceeds of which amount to $67.30.

Particular thanks are due to Mr. Thos. H. Little, the gentlemanly superintendent of the institution, who took entire charge of the concert, and cordially assisted in every arrangement for it; also to Prof. Allen and his pupils, who so kindly exerted themselves to increase the fund of this society.

We are informed that many of them have fathers or brothers in the army and that they were very happy in having an opportunity to aid in this cause. Truly, they have "done what they could," and the reward of such shall be theirs. The funds realized furnish very timely and acceptable aid, for which we must repeat our sincere thanks. The concert was well attended—was exceedingly interesting to those who listened and most creditable to the performers. We would also take this opportunity to express our obligations to Mr. Lappin, who charged but a small sum for the use of his hall, and to the gas company, who lighted it freely on this occasion; also to those who furnished carriages to bring the pupils to the hall, and to those hotel proprietors who offered their omnibuses for this purpose, but whose offer could not be accepted as the desired hour interfered with train time. In behalf of the society,

MRS. J. M. BURGESS, President.
MRS. JOSHUA WRIGHT, V. President.
MARIA F. CLARK, Secretary.
Janesville, June 13th, 1862.

BRONX TROUT.—Since the 4th of May there have been sent to Milwaukee or along the line of the road by express over twenty thousand brook trout, caught in this vicinity and sent off in boxes, well packed in ice. Think of that, you eastern chaps, who fish a month for two trout and a nibble.—La Crosse Democrat, June 12.

Yes; and some of you La Crosse chaps will think of it one of these days when the little shiners are as scarce in their native streams of the west as on the table of the "eastern chaps" who are now reveling in an undeserved luxury. The quails in this vicinity were also almost exterminated by a similar process of exportation. Such items are good for a local notice, but bad on the community where they are issued.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and progress as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Wilmarth, vice-president, and John M. Ge, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the Home, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either here or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The Home is the crutch of Janesville, and in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the Home on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43; and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company. Bonds and mortgages $919,219.93, secured on real estate worth $1,715,500, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash, and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. And one who is not satisfied with the security of the Home as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the Home wrote $108,715,148.00, taking $829,003 premium, and paid losses $533,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The Home is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the City of New York.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constant increase of security at the smallest possible expense, and the liability whatever to the insured.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, including a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $428,287.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as low as ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time of far security worthy of the name.

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be no longer, if they use "COSTAR'S" Exterminators. We have used it on our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5 we would have it. We have tried poisons, but they do not do anything; but "Costar's" article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and Bed Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—[Median 10.] Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed annually in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—[Lancaster (Wis.) Herald.]
